Our Headliner BOB MILLS burst on to the London Comedy scene in 1985, turning the faltering "Alternative" establishment on it's head with his unique, challenging brand of laddish irreverent stand-up. Over the next ten years he established himself as one of the most successful live acts in the country, also racking up an enviable string of TV and radio credits. Now approaching his silver jubilee as a stand-up comic, Bob is one of the most recognisable and respected comedians in the business.

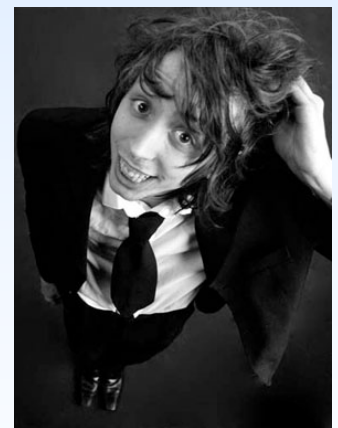

Opening the show is JANICE PHAYRE, who dominates the room through sheer force of personality, bursting onto the stage with an explosion of nervous energy. With energised, impish charm, she passionately describes, and mimes the reactions that the news receives. On the basis of her excitable performance alone, she's simply a force to be reckoned with. She also loves talking dirty, apparently, which I suspect some of you may rather enjoy!

Our Middle act MARK SIMMONS was a finalist in 2009's 'So you think your funny?' competition. 24 year old Mark has an engagingly upbeat delivery and some side-splitting material about shotguns, homophobia and nightclubs.

Compère for the night ERIC LAMPAERT has been described as 'Delightfully Weird' by TIME OUT magazine. MTV chose his distinctive features to front their irritatingly catchy 'Up Your Viva' ads. The strength of his scatty character rips through the room like a mini-hurricane, destroying complacency and raising spirits. Voted English Comedian of the year 2009, he's sure to be big in the future and definitely not to be missed.
