Kicking off his stand up career as a teenager, our headline act TOJU made a blistering start - debuting on television inside his first year. Peckham's finest has since racked up an impressive list of TV credits. A series of searing performances in front of Hackney Empire's notorious 'Phat Friday' audiences led to a regular spot, where his weekly stand up spot stole the show from the core of other acts. Toju's uncompromising style has been a huge success and we look forward to welcoming him back to our club.

Opening the show is CRAIG MURRAY, who Jo Brand described as "Bloody funny". For the past three years charming northerner Craig has cut his comedy teeth as resident compère at the award-winning London club 'The Funny Side...of Covent Garden' where he has shared the stage with some of the very best comedy acts in the business including; Harry Hill, Stewart Lee and even Hollywood legend Robin Williams. An instant crowd pleaser, not to be missed.

Middle act HANNAH WARMAN was a finalist in the 'Newbury New Act Competition 2009' and 'Brighton's Beachdown Festival Comedy Competition 2009'. A talented singer, Hannah gigs throughout the UK taking everyday observations to a surreal and silly conclusion. Hannah took her show to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival last year and regularly appears on stage across London.

Our compère for the evening is slick and subtle JAMES REDMOND who entertains masterfully by delivering unexpected twists and turns throughout his set. Best known for his TV appearances, James has played John Denham in Casualty (BBC 1) for the last 5 years. Since turning to stand up he has already appeared at some of the biggest UK comedy clubs including The Comedy Store (London) and Rawhide (Liverpool) which is a testament to his natural skill on stage. We think you will enjoy his act enormously!
